

Residential Care Manager

Mayflower in Brighton is a vibrant and passionate organisation that has made great strides forward while still nurturing the care and support for which it is renowned.

In this newly created role you will be responsible for 150 residents in low/high care in their new, purpose-built facility. You will have the chance to use your clinical care and quality management expertise to strengthen a culture that embraces positive change, meeting the individual needs of each resident.

This is an ideal career opportunity to take a well resourced organisation into the future. You must be an experienced Div 1 RN with a sound understanding of Aged Care and change management.
