

Executive Director

Court Network
For Humanity

Court Network is a unique, voluntary, non-legal support service operating throughout the courts system. 450 trained volunteers provide information, support and referral services to victims, witnesses, defendants and their families in contact with the courts system.

Reporting to the Board, the Executive Director will drive the organisation's vision and be responsible for the overall operations and management of Court Network. Responsibilities include ongoing development of service provision, organisational capability, staff and volunteer management and key relationships within the courts and justice system.

For this significant and rewarding role, you will need to demonstrate people leadership, operational management, administration experience and the ability to work effectively with volunteers and a range of stakeholders. Board experience and a sound knowledge of the service delivery policy within the justice system would be highly regarded.

If you would like to be considered for the leadership of this highly esteemed and indispensable organisation, please send your application. Alternatively, call Philip Mayers or Michelle Hewitt for more information.
