

Executive Director

AIWCW is a national professional organisation providing a broad range of membership services, registration and advocacy in the welfare and community sector. This strategic role will provide leadership, operational frameworks, financial management and human resources with a small team.

Reporting to the Board, you will evaluate and expand the membership value proposition, create and enhance structures for managing assessments, develop policy and advocate for the sector on a national platform.

This hands-on role requires a proactive leader who can combine sound business skills with an understanding of the human services sector, grow awareness, increase revenue, and ensure organisational sustainability.

To be an integral driver in the next phase of the AIWCW and the future of this important sector, please forward your application. Alternatively, contact Philip Mayers or Michelle Varcoe for a confidential discussion.
