

Senior Executive - Director of Boarding

This is an exciting career opportunity and springboard for advancement for a dynamic educator with the energy, passion and sensitivity to address the needs of girls living away from home. Boarding is a key component of Ascham, playing an important part in preparing girls for life beyond the school years.

Reporting to the Headmistress, you will be responsible for overall care of up to 100 boarders and leadership of boarding staff. A member of the Senior Management team, you will play an important role in whole school organisation, using your innovative leadership to grow Ascham's boarding. Responsibilities include communicating with teaching staff and families, developing programs that enrich the boarding experience and teaching within your discipline.

A qualified teacher, you will need outstanding relationship, negotiation and administrative skills. You will develop rapport with students and parents based on trust and respect, and have genuine interest in all aspects of the girls' daily lives.

If you are interested in this prestigious appointment, which includes a home in one of Sydney's finest suburbs, please email your application by 10 May 2010 or call Philip Mayers.
